AIIMS docs offer OPD services outside health ministry

BJP calls West Bengal CM 'shameless' and demands her resignation

New Delhi, 19 August

Several resident doctors' associations (RDAs) continued their strike in major hospitals across India for the eighth consecutive day on Monday, citing unresolved safety concerns for healthcare professionals, amid protests over the rape and murder of a 31-year-old trainee doctor in Kolkata's state-run RG Kar Medical College and Hospital on August 9.

All resident doctors from the RDA of All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS), New Delhi, marched and sat outside the Nirman Bhawan, which houses the Union Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, to provide elective outpatient department (OPD) services.

"All resident doctors will be providing elective OPD services of around 36 specialties (including medicine, surgery, obstetrics and gynaecology, paediatrics, ophthalmology, orthopaedics and others) to patients outside Nirman Bhawan," an official statement from AIIMS RDA said.

These demonstrations come two days after the Indian Medical Association (IMA) held a 24-hour nationwide strike in protest against the RG Kar incident. The medical body also wrote to President Droupadi Murmu and Prime Minister Narendra Modi, listing out demands, including hospital security, a central protection Act for healthcare workers, and proper investigation of the rape-and-murder case.

The IMA's nationwide strike, joined in by doctors from government and private hospitals, included complete withdrawal of routine OPD services and elective surgeries, while all essential and emergency services were maintained.

A three-judge bench of the Supreme Court is scheduled to hear the rape-murder case on Tuesday, after taking suo motu cognisance on Sunday. The bench will be led by Chief Justice of India (CJI) DY Chandrachud. Meanwhile, the ruling Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) has called West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee "shameless" and demanded her resignation, alleging that crucial evidence was destroyed at her behest to save the culprits.

Health ministry approves 25% enhancement in security deployment at central hospitals

The health ministry has allowed enhancement of security deployment by 25 per cent at all union government hospitals, officials said, amid protests by resident doctors demanding a central law following the alleged rape and murder of a trainee doctor at a Kolkata hospital.

Officials said that apart from the standard security protocol, the deployment of marshals would also be approved based on individual demands by government hospitals after they conduct their security assessment. Official sources, however, said bringing a central law based on the RG Kar case "will not make any huge difference" as the alleged rape and murder of the junior doctor at the Kolkata facility was not a case of patient-doctor violence.

Crimes and rapes are already covered under existing laws, they said. "So, bringing in an ordinance or even a Central law, that too based on the RG Kar case which was not a patient-doctor violence incident, will not make any huge difference," an official source said.

Opposition INDIA bloc, including Congress' Rahul Gandhi, and called them "political vultures", alleging that they "generalised" the trainee doctor's rape and murder by expressing a general concern over such cases reported in different parts of the country, including those in BJP-ruled states.

"Mamata Banerjee has become Mamata, the destroyer. By her misdeeds, she destroyed the dignity of a woman, a doctor who was serving society. Mamata Banerjee is the destroyer of the rule of law and the Constitution," BJP national spokesperson Gaurav Bhatia said at a press conference at the party headquarters here.

"And see the brazenness of shameless Mamata, the destroyer. She took out a march in Kolkata while the entire country was embarrassed by the gruesome incident of rape and murder... She should immediately resign (as CM)," Bhatia said.

Land scam row: HC relief for SiddaramaiahPRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Bengaluru, 19 August

The Karnataka High Court on Monday directed the special court for people's representatives, slated to hear complaints against Chief Minister Siddaramaiah (pictured) in the alleged Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) site allotment 'scam', to defer its proceedings till the next date of hearing on August 29.

"No injunction has been granted," said Justice M Nagaprasanna, who heard a writ petition filed by the Chief Minister challenging the legality of the August 16 order of the Governor, who accorded sanction against him under Section 17A of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988, and Section 218 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Suraksha Sanhita, 2023.

In the petition, the CMSubmitted that the sanction order was issued without due application of mind, in violation of statutory mandates, and contrary to constitutional principles, including the advice of the Council of Ministers, which is binding under Article 163 of the Constitution of India.

Siddaramaiah contended that the Governor's decision is legally unsustainable, procedurally flawed, and motivated by extraneous considerations, and thus, he has preferred the writ petition seeking to quash the impugned order amongst other reliefs. The Governor had issued the order after Pradeepkumar S P, T J Abraham and Snehamayi Krishna had submitted to him petitions requesting sanction for prosecution of the Chief Minister in connection with the alleged irregularities in the allotment of alternative sites to his wife Parvathi by MUDA.

Abraham and Krishna have moved the special court for public representatives, and the case was slated to come up on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Port workers to go on strike to demand better wages

A group of port workers' unions has called for a strike from August 28 to demand immediate settlement of pay revisions and pension benefits, according to a note signed by its members. A strike by the country's port workers could exacerbate the existing congestion issues at Asian and European ports, leading to further delayed shipments, which have a global impact on trade and commerce.

The shipping ministry formed a bipartite wage negotiation committee in March 2021, and the workers submitted their demands six months later, ahead of the expiration of the previous agreement in December of that year, according to the note.

Although the wage negotiation committee met seven times, it failed to meet the port workers' demands, the note said.
